Allianz Target4Life

Your Projects.
Your Life
At Target

What are the advantages of Allianz Target4Life?

- LIFE CYCLE
 Driven by behavioral finance, each Life Cycle evolves with you, by changing the asset allocation of your policy until the target is achieved.
- CUSTOMIZATION
 A bespoke investment portfolio tailored to each client based on their risk appetite, and the target date.
- FLEXIBILITY
 Different methods to pay the premium depending on the needs and wants of each client.
- OPPORTUNITY
 Excellence in risk management and careful control with the objective of optimizing the risk/return profile.
- PROTECTION
 A built-in life insurance coverage that helps protect your loved ones in case of untimely death.
- PIECE OF MIND
 Plan the transfer of your assets by designating beneficiaries in the event of death (to the extent permitted by law).

Why Allianz Target4Life?

A personalized and flexible solution built on the basis of the characteristics of the individual investor and their investment objectives.
A solution with "autopilot": the investor will not have to worry about the Life Cycle path over time, but focus on the final goal.
The benefits of diversifying between different asset classes, over the entire term of the investment
A professional investment approach not "driven by emotions", but rather manage for you by professionals to give you a peace of mind at all stages of the market cycle.

Allianz Target4Life

Projects, dreams, goals: your life is unique and special. Just as unique and special as Allianz Target4Life, the innovative Insurance solution from Allianz Global Life.

Allianz Target4Life is not the classic Unit Linked product, but "rather" a personalized and tailor-made investment path for you. Designed to help you to achieve your life projects. While mitigating the level of risk over time, just like you would.

Nobody knows you as you do; what are your investment objectives, your goals and your investment horizon. With Allianz Target4Life you fully delegate your investment choices to Allianz who will take care of everything for you.

It is designed for long term investments and you get the benefits as longer as you keep the policy alive.

The decision to take out a policy requires an independent evaluation that should not be based on this document and their content. The past performance of the policies, the external insurance funds and individual assets contained therein do not constitute, nor can they be considered a guarantee of future trends. To read the Terms and Condition before buying the product.

Allianz Target4Life is 4 you because it offers the freedom to choose
